

Independence

Making decisions and carrying out actions without being helped or influenced by other people.

I am independent because:

- I feel confident that the decision(s) I have made are right.
- I know how to find solutions to problems without support.