Home Learning Passport

Home Learning Passports are given at the start of each half term. This passport contains a selection of activities for you to complete at home. These activities support English and Topic learning from the curriculum in class.

You should complete:

- At least three activities for English
- At least one activity for Topic
- All written work must be completed neatly in your Yellow Writing Home Learning Book
- Models and other creative pieces of work are to be completed and presented separately. This work must be handed to your class teacher any time before or on the date given in this passport.

Home Learning for Mathematics and Spelling will be given every Friday:

Maths work should be completed neatly in your Blue Maths Home Learning Book and returned for marking by Wednesday of the following week.

Spelling words should be practised in your Spelling Home Learning Book and will be tested the following Friday.

English

Focus Text: 'Under the Moon & Over the Sea'
by John Agard

These activities must be completed in your yellow 'Home Writing Book'. This book is checked by your teacher every Wednesday.

- Write a poem in the style of the 'Jamaican Market'.
- Use similes, metaphors and personification to describe a busy market.
- Write a poem about space or under the sea. It can be an Acrostic, Haiku, Sonnet, Limerick, or a collection of Kennings poems.
- Continue to practise your spellings and grammar by visiting:
www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/ks2/english/spelling_grammar/

Don't forget to read your Home/School Reading Books and record this in your Reading Diary. You should practice your Weekly Spelling Words in time for your test and learn your Times Tables.
