Successful Learners

Parents/Carers:

How can you help at home?

English:

- Ensure that your child is reading a range of non-fiction and fiction texts – read together, identify the features of the texts together.
- Listen to your child read every day.
- Ask questions about their reading.
- Find different types of texts in your home. Talk about WHO they are written for / WHY they have been written / WHAT style has been used / WHEN the text style is used / WHERE these texts are found / HOW the texts have been organised.

Maths:

- Many of the exam questions involve solving a problem and working in context.
- Ask number questions about the world around you, involve relevant subject such as:
- Time: telling the time, differences in time, reading bus and train timetables, TV schedules, cooking times, 12hr and 24hr clocks etc.
- Measurement: estimating, measuring length, units, area, perimeter, capacity/volume, mass/weight, temperature (positive/negative), angles etc.
- Money: shopping bills, change, tickets etc.
- Working out fractions and percentages of quantities.

Your home learning is due to be completed and returned by:
Friday 29th March

Please remember you should try to complete at least three pieces of homework, from each subject.

English

These activities must be completed in your yellow 'Home Writing Book'. This book is checked by your teacher every Wednesday. Choose 3 or more to complete:

- Design a bookmark to celebrate your love for reading. Make your bookmark bright and colourful. You could use your favourite book as inspiration.
- Write a book review about your favourite book. Include the book title, the author, a short blurb of the book and a review of what you like the most about the book. Illustrate this with a picture of your favourite scene from the book.
- Draw a portrait of your favourite character from a book that you have read. Pay attention to detail. What do they look like, what would they wear, what would the environment be like around them? Write a short caption about your chosen character.
- Create a poster to promote reading for pleasure to your friends and family.

Don't forget to read your Home/School Reading Books, practice your Weekly Spelling Words in time for your test and practise your Times Tables using TT Rockstars.
