We wish everyone a restful summer half term and look forward to having everyone back in school on Monday 3rd June for the final term of the academic year. We have lots of exciting events lined up for Summer 2.

Radio Stars

This term some very lucky pupils at Devonshire Hill were able to test their skills at being radio presenters for Devonshire Hill Radio Station. Our budding radio stars discussed a variety of interesting subjects including cooking skills, weather, computer games, sports and football scores. Well done to everyone who took part – you did an excellent job… watch this space!

Eco Enthusiasts

Our Eco Reps are working hard to introduce new recycling initiatives to our school. This term they have launched a writing instrument collection scheme which recycles used writing pens to new produce. To our Eco Reps and everyone who is actively working harder to recycle – thankyou for doing your bit to help our planet! Find out more about this recycling initiative at: https://www.terracycle.com/en-GB/brigades/the-writing-instruments-brigade-r

Geometry Day

Pupils spent a whole day celebrating all things geometry. Each year group were set a variety of projects which included important geometrical components. Through these projects pupils learned about key vocabulary relating to geometry while developing their understanding of how geometry can be applied to the outside of the classroom. Pupils used a variety of tools in their learning to plan and draw for their projects. Tools including rulers, compasses, protractors and 'Tinker CAD' a special Computer-Aided Design software. What a brilliant day full of creativity and exploration.

Home Learning Projects ~ Summer 1

A huge well done to all of the responsible pupils who brought their Home Learning Projects to our recent celebration assembly! Our pupils and staff enjoyed seeing and hearing about the colourful and interesting projects. There were incredible 3D models, project books, and posters amongst the collection. Each project had clearly taken a lot of research and hard work to produce. The next Home Learning Passports will be distributed in the first week of Summer 2 Term and projects will be due into school on:

Monday 8th July

If you missed out on sharing your projects in this term's assembly you have plenty of time to work towards the next presentation. You can take a look at our home learning projects by visiting the School Website's News Archive at: www.devonshirehill.com/calendar-and-news/
